Creative conferencing

Welcome

Vibe Hotel Melbourne is your go to place for meetings, conferences and events that will inspire you and your audience. Conveniently located on the corner of Queen and Flinders Street in Melbourne's bustling CBD, the hotel offers meeting rooms to cater for your needs from large to small, accommodating up to 100 delegates theatre style. Meeting rooms feature natural daylight and built-in AVs. The hotel is in close proximity to the Melbourne Convention Exhibition Centre. Guests can also stay if travelling from far away with 206 rooms including 23 suites. A range of dining options are available including working lunches at our new cafe and bar, St Marks Road Co., where you can also enjoy post conference drinks and cocktails.

Our space is your space

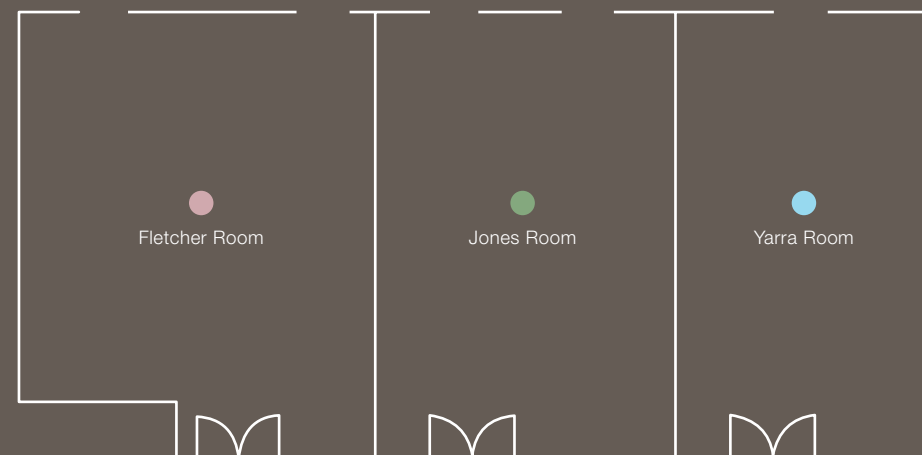

Drawing inspiration from the local area and the building's history, our meeting rooms have been named after the building itself and the renowned Yarra River, from which the building faces towards

Located on level 1, there are three conference rooms, Fletcher, Jones and Yarra. All three rooms are separated by a removable soundproof wall which can be folded back to create one large space, accommodating up to 100 delegates in theatre style.

All meeting rooms feature natural light and built-in audio visual, data projector and screen, with options for flip chart, white board and lectern. For additional requirements, our conference and events team can provide a list of suppliers that can meet any audio visual requirements.

Enjoy peace of mind with access to audio-visual technology, custom styling and full connectivity, including complimentary high speed internet.

Our rooms will energise, invigorate and inspire creativity. Our friendly Vibe Hosts will design any meeting or event to suit your needs along with options for inventive breakouts and delicious cuisine.
