

STOREHOUSE

Pronunciation: stawr-haus

(i) a location, central in town, where villagers and local farmers would store food and hay to be shared out during the harsh winter months